ALL SORTS.

Harry Summers returned from below yesterday.

Mrs. Aube wife of the new County Clerk is recovering.

Remember the $25 pot at the Monarch saloon Sunday night. *

The question agitating the community now is has a county officer the right to get a private citizen's letter out of the post-office and open it?

The Salt Lake Journal of Wednesday says: Mrs. Cassidy, widow of the late ex-Congress Cassidy, of Nevada, fell down stairs in this city yesterday and received painful, but not serious injuries.

The improved Edison phonograph is now in town at Mrs. Tennant's and it is drawing crowds of people, who are glad to hear that there is at last a machine in town, that is perfectly clear and distinct.

For some weeks the Tribune was howling that the editor of the Appeal was going to free Mulder. It now transpires that the indictments were drawn by the Tribune's pet and editor, Mr. Summerfield. With that journal's characteristic disregard for the truth, it tries to show that Mr. Judge drew them.

The worthless indictments are in the clerks office and signed by Summerfield.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Prof. Howe Retained For The Ensuing Year.

Last evening the new School Board organized and after the old board had turned over the books, Dr. Guinan was elected Clerk.

Prof. Howe then handed in his resignation to take effect immediately.

Mr. Olcovich moved that it be not accepted and a long discussion followed. Prof. Howe stated that he had understood that his removal had been decided on, and he had therefore resigned.

All the members of the Board assured in speeches that his incumbency of the public schools had been very satisfactory to the citizens and that Carson was proud to retain him. Dr. Guinan stated that these rumors about what the Board was going to do had been started by cranks and croakers.

The Board was not there to wreck private revenges but to manage the schools in the interest of the public. He wished Prof. Howe to state to the school teachers that the Board had no idea of removing anybody.

The resignation of Prof. Howe was not accepted and he was by a unanimous vote retained for the ensuing year at his old salary.

He thanked the board for its action in assuring them that he should do all in his power to merit the confidence placed in him.

After some minor business, the Board adjourned.

The Glove Contest.

Abe Meyers and Ben Tremblay have signed articles to fight in this city on Feb. 7th.

The following are the articles of agreement:

Articles of agreement, entered into this fifth day of January, 1893, between Abe Meyers and Ben Tremblay.

Said Abe Meyers hereby agrees to box said Ben Tremblay, to a finish, on the 7th day February, 1893, with five ounce gloves, Marquis of Queensbury rules, for the sum of $300.

If either party fails to appear and take part in said contest, he shall lose a forfeit of $75.

The gate receipts of said contest to be distributed as follows:

After the hall rent and all expenses have been paid, 60 per cent of the gate receipts to go to the winner, and 40 per cent to go to the loser.

SIGNED,

ABE MEYERS,
BEN TREMBLAY.

A False Report.

The report has been circulated for several days that Tony Dias, had left the county, leaving his creditors in the lurch. Cole Atherton who purchased Mr. Dias hay yard, desires the report contradicted. He sent Mr. Dias to Bridgeport on a business trip, and he will return in a few days. The report is wholly unfounded.

Re-arrested.

Yesterday afternoon Cagwin & Noteware swore out a complaint against Mulder for petty larceny and he was re-arrested on that charge. The case comes up at 2 o'clock in the Justice Court.

UNNECESSARY ALARM.

There Will Be No Politics In The Public Schools.

In speaking of the appointment of Messrs. Guinan and Olcovich as School Trustees the Tribune rises to remark:

The appointment of Dr. Guinan under the circumstances was expected, but that of H. Olcovich, after being badly defeated at the polls by Chas. A. Brulin, surprised everybody and was taken as an indication that the Silver party management desire to carry politics into the schools and make several removals. Mr. Olcovich accepting the appointment after being repudiated at the polls is construed as being done with selfish motives, he desiring to get one of his daughters into the school as a teacher.

Don't carry things with too high a hand, gentlemen, or the people are liable to revolt.

The Appeal desires here to call the Tribune's attention to the appointment of Mr. Summerfield as District Attorney. He was the most snowed under man in Ormsby county at the primaries, where he contested the fight with Judge Edwards, yet this repudiation by the people had no effect on the Republican Board, which gave him the office in preference to other parties who were candidates.

Mr. Olcovich was only beaten by a few votes, and that simply because he did not work for his own election. Again the Tribune says:

The new board of School Trustees will meet at Dr. Guinan's office to-night and organize. Does the decapitation begin at once?

The Board met last evening and organized, but there were no decapitations, nor will there be any.

The Silver party are determined to take the Public Schools of Ormsby out of politics. The victorious Silver men are not making war on women, and at the same time propose to see that the Republicans do not have the opportunity of making the Public Schools a political machine as heretofore.

Republican young ladies who are now teaching in the Public Schools need not give themselves the slightest uneasiness. The rumor that Prof. Howe was to be removed because he is a Republican has been started by Republicans, because they figure out how they would do if they had the chance.

It is the abuse of political power in Ormsby that killed the Republican party, and the Silver party will profit by this example.

Little Lilliputians.

Three diminutive little gentlemen were borne at Bologna, in Italy. Their parents were of the ordinary size. There has been of the family, altogether, thirteen children—three diminutive and ten tall. The eldest of three little people was a girl, called Amelia; she died 14 years ago at the age of 24 years; she was several inches smaller than the two brothers. The brothers, Primo and Ernest Magri, are descendants of a noble family. Count Primo is 39 years of age, 37 inches in height, and weighs 50 pounds. The brother, Baron Earnest Magri, is 38 years of age, 38½ inches in height, and 54 pounds in weight.

The two little gentlemen have been inspected by the best medical faculty in Bologna, Torino, Milan, Naples and Paris, and pronounced to be the most intelligent, active, symmetrically formed men in miniature on the face of the globe.

MULDER FREE.

The Indictments Would Not Hold Water.

There was a large crowd in the court room yesterday to witness the trial of Prof. Mulder, for obtaining goods and money under false pretences. He came into court with a hang dog air and sat along side his attorney Wm. Woodburn.

The case opened by Mr. Woodburn's demurring to the indictments, which had been drawn by District Attorney Summerfield. He argued that they were faulty in every particular and did not set forth any cause of action against the accused.

The Court took the same view of the indictments that Woodburn did and ordered that the case be dismissed, much to the disgust of the crowd.

Mulder pleaded with the Sheriff to be allowed to remain in the jail until night as he feared being mobbed by the crowd. He said that he had been informed that he would be roughly dealt with when he left the jail and seemed to think that Ormsby county should pay his expenses back to Carson.

The comments on this miscarriage of justice were very loud and pointed on the street. It is said that there were three indictments drawn originally and that the one that would hold water was dismissed several weeks ago.

It was hard to say which man got the largest share of the profanity on the street, Mulder or Summerfield. It appears that Mulder is an old confidence operator. He had to skip out of Los Angeles, was tried for the same offenses in San Francisco and had a bad record everywhere.

The following letter from Victoria B. C., is interesting in this connection:

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 19, 1893.
THE COUNTY SHERIFF, OF ORMSBY.
DEAR SIR:—I see you have Prof. Mulder, the confidence scoundrel. We compliment the Carson people for their pluck in following up this vagabond. He did a big scoop in this town. Father Nicoloi, he got into for over $400, myself for $250. D. S. Spencer, and Ben Gordon and others for a good amount, and the proprietor of the hotel for a birthday party for $100, and scores of others. Let the frontier Judge Lynch settle the matter. Kent and Blackstone are not required, for such skunks.
YOURS,
CHAS. ST. MORRIS.

A Bloody Fight.

Denison City Tex., January 6.—News was received here this morning of a bloody fight which took place among cowboys in the Checthaw nation, Indian Territory. Three men were concerned in it.—Will and James Nevins and Jack Langdon. The Nevins brothers quarreled with Langdon, and tried to run him off the ranch. He refused to be run off, however, and opened fire on his assailants with a Winchester rifle, killing Will Nevins.

James Nevins returned the fire, killing Langdon, at the same time receiving a fatal wound.

When your watch or clock needs repairing, consult Frank Blethen, of the Carson Exchange block. Frank is a skillful workman and moderate in his charges.

Mrs. Duffy and Miss Wilcox will give an apron and necktie party at Odd Fellows' Hall, Wednesday, Jan. 11. Admission gents 50 cents. Dancing school every Wednesday evening. j6td

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock. d13 tf
